

Report of the SHD Department on student affairs work for the first half of 2022 year

Student affairs work is carried out in accordance with the plan approved by the Deputy Dean of the IMF for student affairs work for 2022-2023.

The tasks at the Department of student affairs work implemented in 2022 included:

- creation of a socio-educational environment;
- strengthening and preserving the best traditions existing at the faculty, aimed at educating students about the high status of the student, at the development of the creative nature of the individual;
- creating conditions for the formation of professional and leadership qualities of students,
- creating conditions for the self-realization of students, the continuous development of their creative abilities, as well as improving the system of work on the adaptation of first-year students. In the real activity of teaching and educating students, all these areas were interrelated and conditioned each other.

During the first semester, all the curators and the management of the department, together with the students, actively participated in events aimed at organizing and conducting educational activities for spiritual, moral and patriotic education.

According to the plan of educational work , the following activities were carried out:

On September 23, on the Day of the State Language, students of the International Medical Faculty of Osh State University took part online in an interuniversity festival on the theme "Artistic reading of Kyrgyz literary works", organized by the International University.
