1. Reading (6 points)

Read the text and answer the questions.

"In recent years, online education has become more popular. Many universities now offer courses on the Internet, which allow students to study at home. This can save money and time, but it also has disadvantages: students may feel isolated, and not everyone has good access to technology. Some experts think a combination of online and face-to-face learning is the best approach."

Questions (1 point each, unless marked):

1. What is one reason why online education has become more popular?
2. What are two disadvantages of studying online?
3. What do some experts believe is the best method of learning?
4. Do you prefer online or face-to-face learning? Why? (2 points)
