

МИНИСТЕРСТВО НАУКИ, ВЫСШЕГО ОБРАЗОВАНИЯ И ИННОВАЦИИ
КЫРГЫЗСКОЙ РЕСПУБЛИКИ
ОШСКИЙ ГОСУДАРСТВЕННЫЙ УНИВЕРСИТЕТ
МЕЖДУНАРОДНЫЙ МЕДИЦИНСКИЙ ФАКУЛЬТЕТ

СОГЛАСОВАНО

Председатель УМС факультета
к.э.н. Базиева А.М. Онур
Протокол № 2 от 16.10 2025

ФОНД ЭКЗАМЕНАЦИОННЫХ ЗАДАНИЙ

Для итогового контроля по дисциплине
«Углубленный курс английского языка»

на 2025-2026 учебный год

Направление: 560100 – Общественное здравоохранение
Курс – 1, семестр - I

Наименование дисциплины	Всего	Кредит	Аудиторные занятия		СРС
			Лекции	Практические
«Углубленный курс английского языка»	60ч.	4	-	60ч.	60 ч
Количество вопросов	100

Разработчик:
1. к.ф.н., Жороева А. М.

Ош, 2025

Card 1 Professional English course

1. Explain the following medical terms with simple language:

Oedema

Dyspnoea

2. Read these brief case and try to identify the likely condition or the next clinical step.

Case: A 24-year-old woman reports extreme fatigue and "pins and needles" in her feet. Her blood results show a high Mean Cell Volume (MCV) and low Vitamin B12.

3. Write the Referral Letter (GP to Specialist) Patient Details, Reason for Referral, History, Symptoms, Request.

Scenario: You are a GP referring a patient with a suspected orthopnoea to cardiologist.

Card 2 Professional English course

1. Explain the following medical terms with simple language:

Myocardial Infarction

Angina

2. Read these brief case and try to identify the likely condition or the next clinical step.

Case: A 65-year-old male presents with a "tight, heavy" feeling in his chest that occurs when he climbs stairs but stops when he rests. He describes it as a "band around the chest."

Diagnose: -----

3. Write the Referral Letter (GP to Specialist) Patient Details, Reason for Referral, History, Symptoms, Request.

Scenario: You are a GP referring a patient with a suspected thyroid goitre to an Endocrinologist.

Card 3 Professional English course

1. Explain the following medical terms with simple language:

Haemoptysis

Paraesthesia

2. Read these brief case and try to identify the likely condition or the next clinical step.

Case: A 3-year-old child presents with a high fever, a barking cough, and a harsh, high-pitched noise when breathing in (stridor).

Diagnose: -----

3. Write the Referral Letter (GP to Specialist) Patient Details, Reason for Referral, History, Symptoms, Request.

Scenario: You are a GP referring a patient with a suspected myocardial ischaemia.

Card 4 Professional English course

1. Explain the following medical terms with simple language:

Syncope

Malignant

2. Read these brief case and try to identify the likely condition or the next clinical step.

Case: A patient with long-standing diabetes presents for an eye exam. The doctor observes "cotton wool spots" and small hemorrhages on the retina.

Diagnose: -----

4. Write the Referral Letter (GP to Specialist) Patient Details, Reason for Referral, History, Symptoms, Request.

Scenario: You are a GP referring a patient with a suspected a neurotic stress-related disorder.

Card 5 Professional English course

1. Explain the following medical terms with simple language:

Febrile

Pruritus

2. Read these brief case and try to identify the likely condition or the next clinical step.

Case: A patient complains about sudden chest pain, arm pain, shortness of breath, nausea, extreme fatigue.

Diagnose: -----

3. Write the Referral Letter (GP to Specialist) Patient Details, Reason for Referral, History, Symptoms, Request.

Scenario: You are a GP referring a patient with a suspected hyperthyroidism.

Card 6 Professional English course

1. Explain the following medical terms with simple language:

Sputum

Analgesics

3. Read these brief case and try to identify the likely condition or the next clinical step.

Case: A patient tells about easy bruising, prolonged bleeding from cuts, nosebleeds, heavy periods, blood in urine/stool.

Diagnose: -----

4. Write the Referral Letter (GP to Specialist) Patient Details, Reason for Referral, History, Symptoms, Request.

Scenario: You are a GP referring a patient with a suspected leukemia.

Card 7 Professional English course

1. Explain the following medical terms with simple language:

Immunization

Ophthalmoscopy

2. Read these brief case and try to identify the likely condition or the next clinical step.

Case: A patient came with yellow/blue ring (arcus senilis) around the cornea or retinal blood vessel deposits.

Diagnose: -----

3. Write the Referral Letter (GP to Specialist)

Scenario: You are a GP referring a patient with a suspected thrombocytopenia (Low Platelets)

Card 8 Professional English course

1. Explain the following medical terms with simple language:

Coma

Anaemia

2. Read these brief case and try to identify the likely condition or the next clinical step.

Case: A patient complains about unexplained weight loss, persistent fatigue, fever, night sweats, enlarged lymph nodes.

Diagnose: -----

3. Write the Referral Letter (GP to Specialist) Patient Details, Reason for Referral, History, Symptoms, Request.

Scenario: You are a GP referring a patient with a suspected Polycythemia.

Card 9 Professional English course

1. Explain the following medical terms with simple language:

Dysphasia

Metastasis

2. Read these brief case and try to identify the likely condition or the next clinical step.

Case: A patient complaints about easy bruising, unusual bleeding, bone pain, pale skin, recurrent infections.

Diagnose: -----

3. Write the Referral Letter (GP to Specialist) Patient Details, Reason for Referral, History, Symptoms, Request.

Scenario: You are a GP referring a patient with a suspected Viral Conjunctivitis.

Card 10 Professional English course

1. Explain the following medical terms with simple language:

Radiography

Otoscopy

2. Read these brief case and try to identify the likely condition or the next clinical step.

Case: A patient presents thick, red skin patches with silvery scales, often on elbows, knees, scalp, causing joint pain (psoriatic arthritis).

Diagnose: -----

3. Write the Referral Letter (GP to Specialist) Patient Details, Reason for Referral, History, Symptoms, Request.

Scenario: You are a GP referring a patient with a suspected arthritis.

Card 11 Professional English course

1. Explain the following medical terms with simple language:

Endoscopy

'Greenstick' fracture

2. Read these brief case and try to identify the likely condition or the next clinical step.

Case: A patient with bone infection, usually bacterial, presents as localized pain, fever, redness, potentially mimicked by tumors.

Diagnose: -----

2. Write the Referral Letter (GP to Specialist) Patient Details, Reason for Referral, History, Symptoms, Request.

Scenario: You are a GP referring a patient with a suspected skin cancer.

Card 12 Professional English course

1. Explain the following medical terms with simple language:

Hyperplasia

Atrophy

2. Read these brief case and try to identify the likely condition or the next clinical step.

Case: A patient suffered from softening of bones due to Vitamin D deficiency, causing pain, deformities (bowed legs), fractures.

Diagnose: -----

3. Write the Referral Letter (GP to Specialist) Patient Details, Reason for Referral, History, Symptoms, Request.

Scenario: You are a GP referring a patient with a suspected Osteomalacia.

Card 13 Professional English course

1.Explain the following medical terms with simple language:

Syncope

Neoplasm

2.Read these brief case and try to identify the likely condition or the next clinical step.

Case: A patient tells about easy bruising, prolonged bleeding from cuts, nosebleeds, heavy periods, blood in urine/stool.

Diagnose: -----

3.Write the Referral Letter (GP to Specialist) Patient Details, Reason for Referral, History, Symptoms, Request.

Scenario: You are a GP referring a patient with a suspected lymphoma.

Card 14 Professional English course

1.Explain the following medical terms with simple language:

Laceration

Biopsy

2.Read these brief case and try to identify the likely condition or the next clinical step.

Case: A patient complaints about easy bruising, unusual bleeding, bone pain, pale skin, recurrent infections.

Diagnose: -----

3.Write the Referral Letter (GP to Specialist) Patient Details, Reason for Referral, History, Symptoms, Request.

Scenario: You are a GP referring a patient with a suspected bone cancer.

Card 12 Professional English course

1. Explain the following medical terms with simple language:

Hyperplasia

Insomnia

2.Read these brief case and try to identify the likely condition or the next clinical step.

Case: A patient suffered from softening of bones due to Vitamin D deficiency, causing pain, deformities (bowed legs), fractures.

Diagnose: -----

3.Write the Referral Letter (GP to Specialist) Patient Details, Reason for Referral, History, Symptoms, Request.

Scenario: You are a GP referring a patient with a suspected Osteomalacia.