

RUSTAMBEK KYZY PERIZAT

Profile

A dedicated and creative educator specializing in bilingual teaching and interactive learning. Experienced in crafting engaging lesson plans, simplifying complex concepts, and integrating storytelling to enhance student understanding. Passionate about cultural inclusivity and fostering intellectual curiosity through literature and scientific texts. Holds a Master's degree in Two Foreign Languages with a scientific-pedagogical focus.

Education

(2008–2019) Kerme-Too school

(2019–2023) Osh State University, Institute of

Philology and Intercultural Communication

Bachelor's Degree in English Language Teaching

(2024–2025) L.N. Gumilyov Eurasian National University

(Kazakhstan) Master's Program in Two Foreign Languages

(English as First Foreign Language) Scientific-Pedagogical

Direction (Double-Degree Program)

Languages:

Kyrgyz – Native language

Kazakh – Advanced

Russian – Advanced

English – Upper Intermediate

German – Intermediate

Hobbies:

Volunteering and animal welfare

Reading books

Learning foreign languages

Skills & Competencies

Office Software: Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint
Online Teaching Tools: Zoom, Google Meet, Microsoft Teams

Graphic and Presentation Editors: Canva, Figma

Academic Document Management: LaTeX, Mendeley

Educational Platforms: Moodle, Google Classroom

Extracurricular Activities

Volunteer with Red Crescent

Participated in humanitarian initiatives, supporting disaster relief efforts, health awareness campaigns, and community education programs.

Participant in the International GEM SILKWAY Program

Engaged in cross-cultural academic exchange, developing expertise in international education and fostering collaboration among global scholars.

Research & Publications

"Didactic Potential of Literary Texts in Foreign Language Teaching"

Work Experience

English Teacher – Osh State University (2023–2024)